

16th Annual PACE UNIVERSITY PSYCHOLOGY CONFERENCE

Undergraduate and graduate students are invited to submit proposals for paper or poster presentation at the 16th Annual Pace University Undergraduate Psychology Conference on May 10, 2008 (Saturday) at One Pace Plaza, New York, NY 10038. Submissions on topics related to psychological research from non-Psychology majors and departments are also encouraged. Registration is free!

Proposals must be received no later than April 14, 2008. Proposals should conform to the following formats for poster.

➤ Posters:

1. Title, author(s), institutional affiliation(s), mailing address, phone number, and e-mail address(es)
2. Abstract of completed research (no longer than 150 words)

[Note: The Florence L. Denmark Award for Outstanding Poster is given to the top (2 or 3) outstanding posters at the Conference. Three independent evaluators (one Pace University psychology faculty member and two psychologists from other institutions) serve as judges to evaluate all posters based on the following criteria: scientific quality, originality, comprehensiveness, clarity, appearance, and overall quality. Awardees are announced at the conference and official certificates are mailed out a week after the conference.]

➤ Oral Presentations (20 minutes):

1. Title, author(s), names of presenter(s), institutional affiliation(s), mailing address, phone number, and e-mail address(es).
2. Brief description of study purpose, methods, and results (no longer than 150 words).

[Note: For accepted oral and poster presentations, abstracts will appear in the proceedings that will be made available on this website and in print form to be distributed on the day of the conference.]

Send proposals via email to mmcormick2@pace.edu. Via regular mail, send to:

PACE PSYCHOLOGY CONFERENCE
41 Park Row, 13th floor
Psychology Department
New York, NY 10038
ATTN: Dr. Mercedes McCormick

PROGRAM TIMELINE

9:30am	Registration and Breakfast Buffet	1:30pm - 2:30pm	Invited Address: "Global Transformations of Childhood" Speaker: Dr. Uwe Gielen (President, APA Division of International Psychology; Recipient of the Benjamin B. Wolman Award)
10:00am	Poster Set-up
10:15am	Welcome Addresses
10:15am - 12:15pm	Completion of Poster set-up	2:30pm	Concurrent Events:
12:20pm	Concurrent Paper (Oral) Presentations		#1: "Transnationalism and Mentoring" (International Psychology Panel)
12:30pm - 1:30pm	Lunch Buffet		#2: "Professional Concerns and Issues of Psychology Students"
1:20pm - 1:30pm	Poster Session	3:20pm - 3:50pm	PSI CHI Induction Ceremony
	Award Presentations	3:50pm - 4:15pm	Closing Remarks and Dessert

For more information or to volunteer, contact Dr. Mercedes McCormick or go to:

<http://webpage.pace.edu/rvelayo/paceconference/>

Telephone inquiries: (212) 346-1506

E-mail inquiries: mmcormick2@pace.edu